Zac Garner, President

- Welcome to the first Joint Delta Tau Alumni Association conference call.
- Current state of the Association.
- Chapters' recruitment plan and update: The Chapter pinned 5 new guys last Friday. They will have a second pinning on the 30th of September. Currently they have 5 more guys on board to pin on that Friday. The chapter is having another pinning tonight (9/29/16) to pin 5 more. This will bring the current associate count to 10. They are pushing to have 10 more new members pinned by the Thanksgiving Day dinner.
- Update on HQ and Phired up agreement: Zac to read off the email from HQ. Also to read response to boards request for goals and area of expectation. Discussion afterwards. Zac read off emails and will follow up with HQ towards the end of the semester to revisit.
- Treatment of Active and Associate brothers during homecoming weekend: I can not stress this enough, We as an Association and Active Chapter will NOT condone any actions from Alumni or Actives that in anyway is harmful, abusive, harassing or just mean or rude to any Associates/pledges or Active members. Any actions of this sort will be grounds for expulsion from the National Fraternity and the Alumni Association. All Alumni and Brothers will be responsible to police this. Any harassing actions will be handled swiftly.

- Shirts / Polo's: Is anyone interested?? NO response from anyone at this time.

Curt Binder, Vice President

- Next newsletter out to all alumni. Posted on social media on Friday. Newsletter went out to active membership on Wednesday. Newsletter will be posted on social media starting Friday.
- New Conference call Number for Joint Calls. Call went well and new website for call sharing was working. We will have another call in Feb.
- Increased Communication with the chapter. Communication is going well with the chapter. We will continue to have them add content to the newsletter and work towards making it more of a joint effort/newsletter.
- Website updates and share calendars. The website and social media is being updated weekly. We also have a new shared calendar showing all the dates for the active chapter and alumni for the semester. We will also be posting new photos to social media and website. If you have photos from past events please send them to the association gmail account and we will post them.

Andy Clark, Membership

- Current members: 29
- Recruitment plan for Homecoming?? Ask a brother to join. Get his payment right then.
- Remind Zac to take Square to Homecoming. Ha-ha Zac has been reminded.

Travis Drake, Programs

- HOMECOMING!!!!!!
 - Final agenda/schedule to be ready by Sept 26th.
 - Tent city Opens at 11:00am Closing at 3:30 Setup to start around 10
 - Food will be served from 12-2:30 or till it is all gone.
 - Game starts at 3:00

- It will be BYOB. All coolers will be checked with our bar worker. In order to get a drink, you must ask the bar worker to get it for you out of your cooler. This is an ISU policy. If you need to check a cooler with a DD in the morning they are willing to bring it to the tent for you. Chapter will be touching base with Brother Drew to get into the storage unit and get the old rolling bar top and letter. They will also be providing a few flags.
- Please do not assert your power over our current associates/pledges/active members. They are working diligently to rebuild the chapter, and do not need to hear from an alumni on a power trip during Homecoming. DD's will be available....please drink responsibly. #HaveFun This day should be fun so don't be the guy who makes it work for other guys.
- DD's number list. Attached. Please remember to tip your drivers. Driver's number list will be attached with this email. Please meet them in the morning if you plan to do the walk or just meet us at the tent.
- Thanksgiving;
 - Fliers will be out during Homecoming.
 - Rooms need to be booked by 10/06/16 if be guaranteed a room. After that rooms are not guaranteed. Room block is under ISU Sigma Tau Gamma. $90.99 a night+ tax
 - RSVP!!! Please RSVP to stgdeltatauchapter@gmail.com we will need a good count of guys so please RSVP as soon as you can.
 - Event is BYOB (Maybe bring a few to share) and if you are able please think about bringing a side dish.
 - The chapter has requested to have formal in Terre Haute this year. Brother Drake and Garner will look into a few options while in town. Very tentative date is April 8th. This will depend on tandem, hotel and hall space that is available.

Chad Smith, Finance

- Numbers for Homecoming will be available as soon as all receipts are turned in. We will also be buying the items for Thanksgiving now so cost will be slit up between the two events.
- We are getting pricing on Thanksgiving Day meats now. Maybe someone out there wants to sponsor this event?? This is why we need a good count. Please RSVP as soon as you can.
- The board has decided to buy the chapter a grill to assist in the recruitment effort. We were informed that they currently did not have use of a grill for the chapter. We will also be buying a tank, chain and lock to secure it.

- Current account balances were requested by brother Hardebeck. Main account: 3,141.52
Housing/Recruitment account 71,995.72.

Open Comments, Board of Directors or guest

The board is excited about the ability to hold joint calls. We plan to have another joint call in February and another call in March to set-up the final agenda for Formal.

Please make sure to RSVP for the Thanksgiving dinner. The chapter will also be joining us so everyone will have plenty of time to meet the new guys.

Call ended at 7:53pm CST
